Why is this work important?

“Triple P is not just a set of strategies. It’s a method for guiding families through a process in which they create and fine-tune a parenting plan and overcome the barriers that will come along with that plan. It is in guiding families through this process that real change occurs. Not only does family stress decrease and children’s positive behaviors increase, but parents become increasingly empowered to tackle current and future challenges with hope and the knowledge to do so well.”

- Anna (Triple P Practitioner)

Meet Triple P America

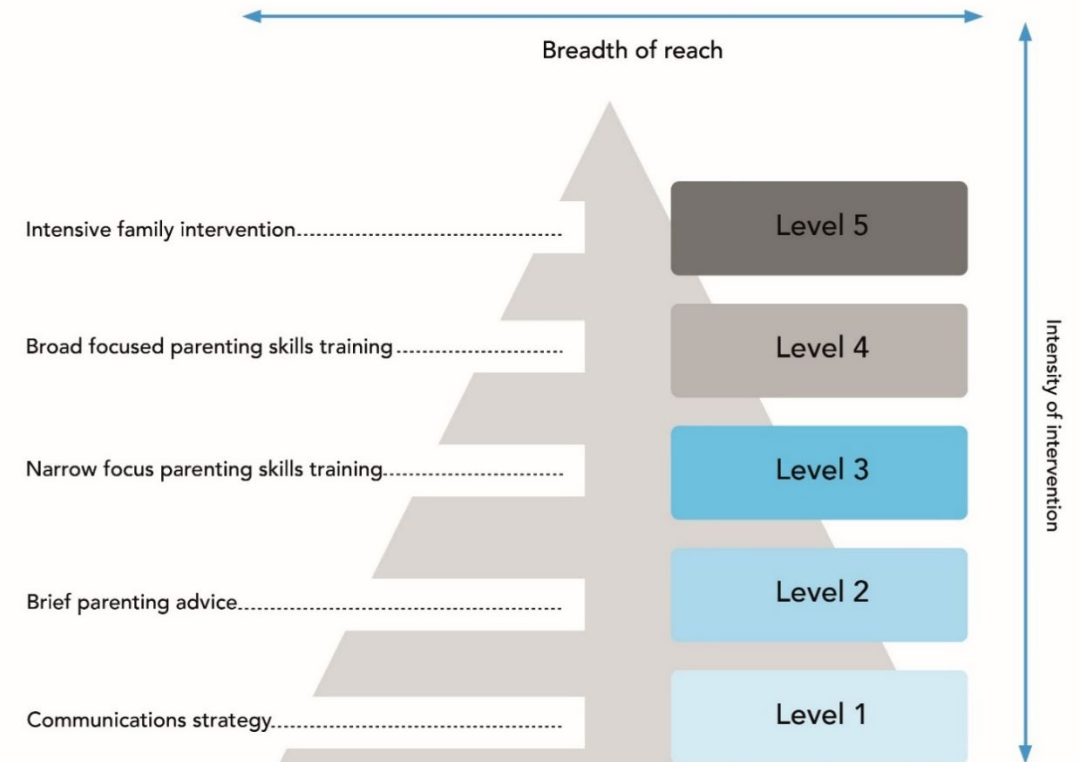

Triple P America is the sole organization in the US to provide standardized Triple P training by accredited Triple P Trainers, parent resources for delivery of Triple P, and implementation support for agencies that implement Triple P.

What is Triple P?

The Triple P - Positive Parenting Program is a parenting and family support system designed to prevent and treat behavioral and emotional problems in children.

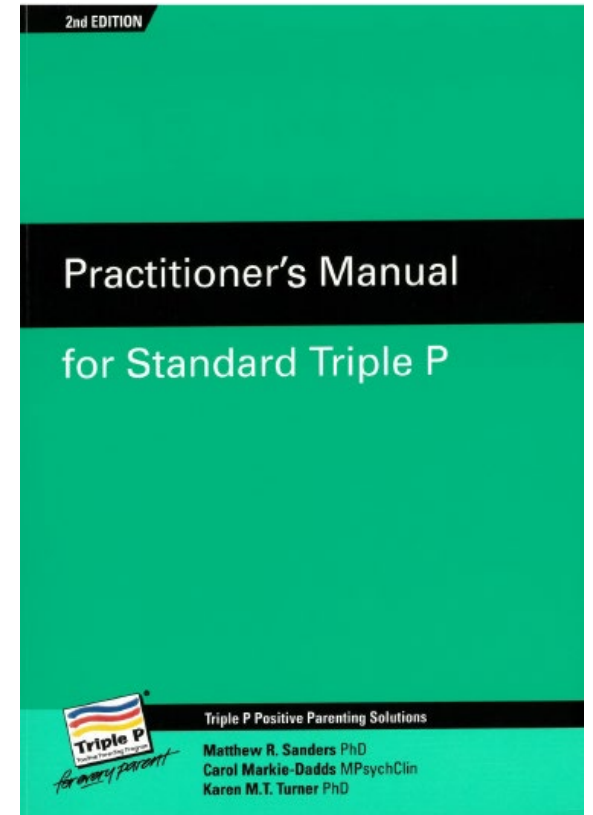

Triple P aims to prevent problems in the family, school and community before they arise and to create family environments that encourage children to realize their potential.

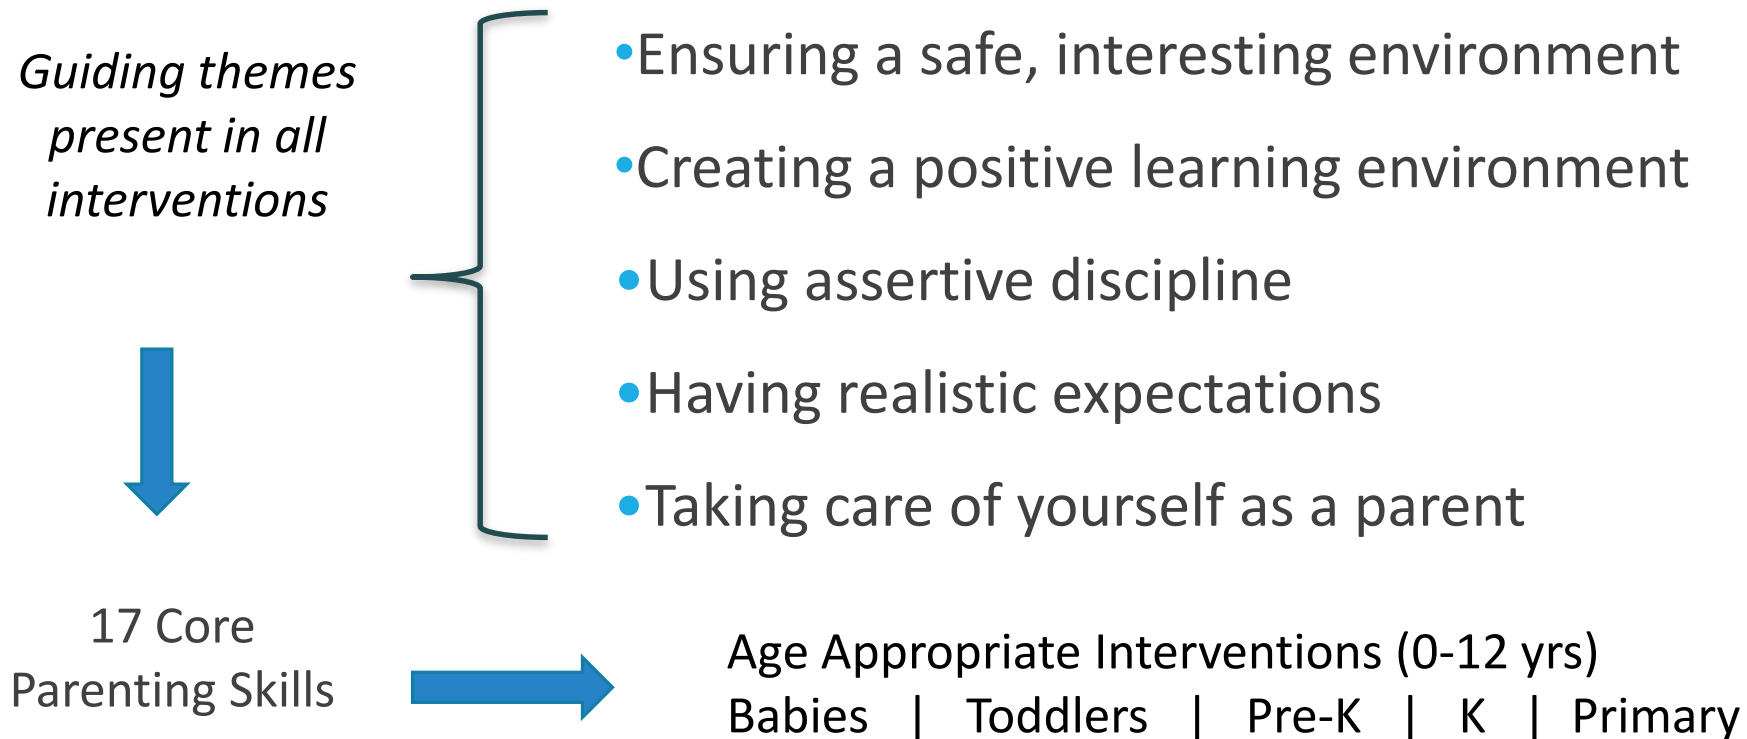

What is Level 4 Standard Triple P?

Triple P - Standard Level 4 helps parents learn strategies that promote social competence and self-regulation in children and decreases problem behavior.

Standard Triple P is designed to be delivered to the parents of children with moderate to severe behavioral difficulties.

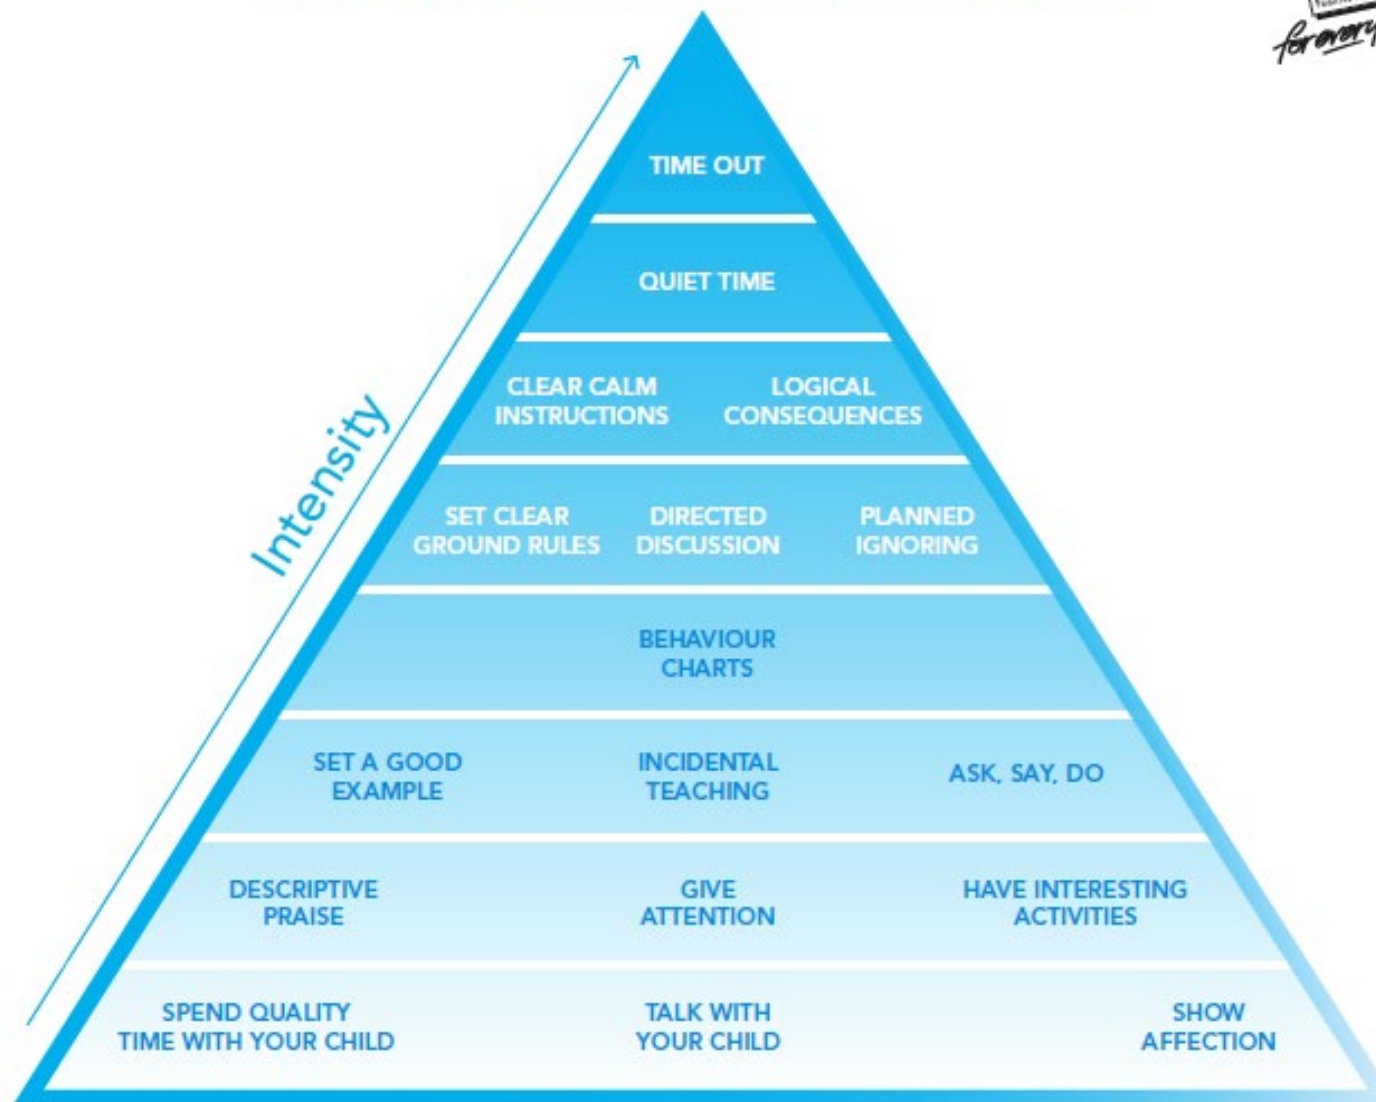

Triple P Principles of Positive Parenting

THE TRIPLE P STRATEGY PYRAMID

Who is Standard Triple P appropriate for?

Parents and caregivers of children ages 0-12 that have a concern about their child's social, emotional, or behavioral health.

What is the content of Level 4 – Standard Triple P?

Weeks 1-2

- Assessment and review of findings

Weeks 3-4

- Introduction of parenting skills and creation of parenting plan

Weeks 5-7

- Practice sessions

Week 8

- Planned activities introduction

Week 9
